ANNOUNCEMENT

I am pleased to announce that Jay Mebane has accepted the position of Director of Inspections for the City of Burlington effective December 31, 2018.

Jay will transfer from the Burlington Fire Department where he served as Assistant Fire Chief – Fire Marshal and has worked with the City of Burlington for more than ten years.

Jay is a native of Burlington and holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Fire & Emergency Services Administration and is currently working on his Master’s Degree in Public Affairs. Jay also holds a probationary NC Level II Building certificate, a standard NC Level III Fire Inspector certificate, a NC Level III Fire & Life Safety Educator certificate and has completed the NC School of Government Effective Supervisory Management Course.

Jay also serves as the Executive Director for the Central Board of the NC Fire Marshal’s Association as well as President of the Alamance County NC Burn Children Foundation. Jay is a graduate of the International Maxwell Certification Program for Leadership, Coaching, Speaking and Training.

“I am very excited about this opportunity and look forward to working alongside our staff and with the building and development community to support municipal growth initiatives in a safe and efficient manner”. {Jay Mebane}

“I am very pleased to welcome Jay Mebane to the Inspections Department. Jay’s experience, skills and technical knowledge combined with his energy and passion will help lead our Inspections Department to provide the best services we can for our community.” {Nolan Kirkman}
